VOL. 1 ISSUE 9 OCTOBER 2019

KEEP YOURSELF SAFE, BUY LEGAL PRODUCTS

We're asking you to help us better understand your relationship to vaping by taking a survey. Media reports are pervasive and we're waiting on conclusions of the investigations by the health agencies.

As we mentioned last issue, we're requiring all of Mercy suppliers to declare the safety of their products. You can obtain those declarations when you're in the store, or on our website.

SURVEY: Please take this SURVEY (2 minutes or less) to let us know your position on vaping. The survey is anonymous. We'll share the results in the next issue of Whoa Bundy!

Drop us a line here. We'd love to know what you think.

CIRCLE OF VIRTUES

Mercy Love is alive and vibrating, every day, within the walls of Mercy Wellness. Recently, a handful of employees worked together and gifted a pair of color-correcting lenses to help Paul-Henri, one of their fellow employees who suffers from color blindness, and surprised him during a morning meeting.

Mercy staff huddled on the dispensary floor minutes before the opening of the shop. The gift left Paul-Henri bewildered. He put them on to gaze at his surroundings. Right at that moment he was immediately overjoyed from the expression of love from his fellow co-workers.

Paul-Henri, finally seeing the vibrant, once non-existent colors of clothing, let alone, looking into the display cases and getting a true look at the beauty of multi-colored cannabis flowers. He mentioned being able to see the orange hairs throughout the strains of cannabis, never knowing the pistils that run through the dank green nugs.

The deed was done, the employees had bequeathed a gift of color and a new look on the world for Paul-Henri, whose smiling face and loving soul exudes the essence of Mercy Love.
